ANCONA DETAILS ARE INCOMPLETE

Washington Officials Refuse to Discuss Case.

REPORTS ARE CONFLICTING

One Story Is That Submarine Which Sank Italian Ship Flew the German Flag—Number of American Lives Lost Is Not Yet Ascertainable.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Official reports describing exactly how the Italian liner Ancona was destroyed still are unavailable and in consequence Secretary Lansing refrained from expressing any opinion as to the attitude of the United States.

Press reports indicating that the Ancona was given warning, but that many passengers were lost as a result of shots fired by the attacking submarine after the liner came to a halt, were read here with grave interest.

High officials of the American government hold that upon heeding warning a belligerent merchantman is entitled to sufficient time to place non-combatants in a place of safety and that the fact that the vessel previously attempted to escape does not invalidate that right.

Many phases of the question were discussed informally by officials, but with the reservation that formal comment or action necessarily must await detailed reports from Ambassador Page at Rome and American consuls in Italy and North Africa, who have been instructed to obtain affidavits from survivors. So far it has been impossible to ascertain definitely the number of American citizens lost.

Submarine Flew German Flag.

Conflicting reports concerning the colors raised by the submarine which attacked the Ancona attracted much attention. If one report—that the submarine flew a German flag—is confirmed, officials said this would be considered an act of war sufficient to serve notice that Italy and Germany were in a state of war.

There never has been any declaration of war between the two countries so far as the state department is advised and the custom has been in cases of this kind to await some overt act as an evidence of the state of hostilities.

Should it develop that the submarine was manned by a German naval force and flew a German flag it is considered certain that the question will be made the subject of immediate diplomatic correspondence by the United States with the German foreign office. Every means of clearing up such points through American diplomatic and consular sources will be exhausted, however, before the Austrian or German government is approached.

DENOUNCE ANCONA SINKING

Italian Papers Call Attack on Liner Barbarous.

Rome, Nov. 12.—Commenting upon the sinking of the Ancona the Tribuna says:

"It was even more barbarous than the sinking of the Lusitania, for the passengers were not warned against sailing before they boarded the steamer as in the Lusitania case."

"Modern civilization must rise against the criminal responsibility for the Ancona outrage. The Austrians, if the submarine was Austrian, surpassed their allies and teachers. President Wilson in the name of outraged humanity must read over the note received from Berlin and have it respected."

The Idea Nazionale says the Ancona case recalls the Lusitania, but that it is "graver and more ferocious, as the submarine fired hundreds of shots against the Ancona to save torpedoes, as it is difficult to get fresh supplies of torpedoes in the Mediterranean, thus using the most inhuman methods and making escape precarious."

FORMER TREASURER FOUND $14,000 SHORT.

Rhineland, Wis., Nov. 12.—Auditors who have been examining the books of A. D. Sutton, for twenty-one years city treasurer, made their final report to the council and stated he was short $14,008. A resolution was passed authorizing Thomas Morse, city attorney, to take any legal action necessary. Sutton has paid back $5,500, but it is said is unable to raise the remainder. Legal action is expected.

Elected President of the Denver and Rio Grande.

New York, Nov. 12.—H. U. Mudge, former president and receiver of the Rock Island, was formally elected president of the Denver and Rio Grande. Mudge succeeded Arthur Coppel.

FIRE RAZES ANOTHER WAR GOODS FACTORY

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 12.—Fire destroyed the rope plant of John A. Roebeling's Son & Co., which has been active in manufacturing supplies for the allies.

This is the third fire of its kind within twenty-four hours, the blaze at the Bethlehem steel plant having caused a loss of more than $1,000,000, and the fire in the Baldwin works at Philadelphia, causing heavy damage.

Houses in the vicinity of the Roebeling plant were destroyed by the blaze, which spread rapidly. The entire Trenton fire department turned out to fight the fire. The loss is estimated at $500,000. The Roebeling plant has been manufacturing barbed wire, trace chains and field telephone and telegraph wire for the entente allies. The plant has been closed for a couple of weeks for the installation of new machinery to take care of the larger contracts. The cause of the fire is not known, but an investigation is being made.

TWO GIVEN THIRTY YEARS

Milwaukee, Nov. 12.—The severest sentences ever imposed in Milwaukee on robbers were meted out by Judge A. C. Hackus when he sentenced William Billinski, alias "Billy the Goat," and Richard Becker, alias Brown, to serve thirty years each in state's prison.

Frank Le Roy Evenson, a third member of the gang, which held up a saloon and its patrons at the point of revolvers, was shown to have been a novice and was sentenced to three years in the same institution.

MILK FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Seattle to Serve It Free to Those Unable to Pay.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 12.—Pasteurized milk is to be served free to all Seattle school children who cannot afford to pay for it. All who can will pay 1 cent a glass for it.

This plan was decided upon by the school department when it was shown that hundreds of children in the schools were suffering from lack of proper food.

SHIP'S OWNERSHIP SOUGHT

Great Britain Explains Detention of the Hocking.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Great Britain has informed the United States that the cause of the detention of the American steamship Hocking, seized by a British prize crew and taken to Halifax, was to determine whether the vessel was enemy owned, although flying the American flag.

The Hocking is owned by the American Transatlantic company of New York. It has been charged and denied that some of the stock of the company is German owned.

THREE CHILDREN CREMATED

Charred Bodies Are Found in Ruins of Barn on Farm.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 12.—The charred bodies of the three small children of M. D. Tiller were found in the ruins of a barn on the farm of their father in Boyd county, according to a report reaching here.

It is supposed the children accidentally set fire to some hay in the barn while playing with matches.

How They Go to War in Germany

They are still going to war in Germany with high hopes according to all recent testimony, as this photograph of a young man and the girl he expects to return to wed, shows.

But no one knows how long it will last. Recently an order that newspapers should not discuss the question of peace was issued. The British said this order was evidence that millions of Germans are talking peace, else why should it have been necessary to issue such an order.

The idea, which sprang from the Ottawa intimation that an American legion might be formed in Canada, is to get permission from Washington to recruit a regiment of United States citizens at Calgary, so that in the event of the States declaring war this regiment will be at once ready for service. Scores of Uncle Sams adherents in the city have signified their willingness to sign.

J. OGDEN ARMOUR.

Declares Prosperity Has Come to Stay.

PROSPERITY HERE TO STAY

J. Ogden Armour Says Peace Will Make No Difference.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—J. Ogden Armour, multimillionaire packer, believes that prosperity has come to stay in the United States. In an interview Mr. Armour says our prosperity is not a war prosperity, but that the products of the farm are the basis of it.

"America is rapidly rising to an unprecedented prosperity," said Mr. Armour, "a prosperity which would have been inconceivable a year ago and which will be enduring. It will be boomlike for, say, three years and should not be affected by a termination of the European war within that time."

"The idea that the cessation of European hostilities must affect us adversely is, I believe, academic. In the first place, emigration from the countries now at war will be prohibited. Men will be needed over there as much, if not more, than money."

LORD DERBY HINTS AT CONSCRIPTION

London, Nov. 12.—A strong intimation of compulsion at an early date is contained in a statement by the Earl of Derby, director of recruiting. This statement is made, Lord Derby declares, with the authority of the prime minister. It says:

"If young men medically fit and not indispensable in any business of national importance or any business conducted for the general good of the community do not come forward voluntarily before Nov. 20 the government will, after that date, take the necessary steps to redeem the pledge made on Nov. 2."

On the date referred to Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that if young men did not come forward voluntarily and enlist other and compulsory methods would be taken before married men were called upon to fill their engagement to serve." Lord Derby adds:

"Whether a man is indispensable or not to his business will be decided, not by the man, or his employer, but by competent authorities and tribunals which are being set up to consider such cases."

WILSON CREATES FIRST AID BOARD

Will Instruct Civilians to Care for the Injured.

USEFUL IN TIME OF WAR

President Appoints Eminent Military, Naval and Other Medical Talent to New Body—Means of Public Instruction Will Be Devised.

Washington, Nov. 12.—First aid efficiency among civilians of the country in time of peace, which, in case of necessity, might be utilized for military requirements, is the objective of a board of first aid standardization appointed by President Wilson.

The organization was created in pursuance of a resolution adopted at a conference of American surgeons on first aid held in Washington last summer.

The president appointed the following members of the board:

Dr. William Colby Rucker, assistant surgeon general, representing the public health service; Major Robert H. Patterson, war department and American Red Cross; Surgeon A. M. Faudt, navy department; Dr. J. Shelton Horsely, Richmond, Va., representing the American Medical association; Dr. S. C. Plummer, Chicago, American Association of Railway Surgeons, and Dr. Richard H. Harte, Philadelphia, American Surgical association.

The plan is to standardize first aid packages and equipment of all sorts, means of transporting and handling wounded and first aid instruction among civilians, particularly those allied with industrial plants of the country.

Primary work of the organization will be that of standardizing first aid equipment and methods of transportation, after which means of public instruction will be devised.

CAUSE FOR THANKSGIVING

Minnesota Governor Gives Reasons in Proclaiming Day.

St. Paul, Nov. 12.—Minnesota people have ample reason this year to be thankful, says Governor W. S. Hammond in his first Thanksgiving day proclamation. The governor makes a special appeal to those in comfortable circumstances to show their gratitude by giving aid to the needy. The proclamation designates Thursday, Nov. 25, as a day of Thanksgiving.

"The people of Minnesota," it says, "have ample reason to give thanks to God for his blessings, through and by which they have peace, contentment and the material things necessary for their welfare and wholesome enjoyment. The riches of the state, due to the fertility of its soil, the mineral deposits, the forests, the fish and game, supplemented by industry and frugality, are ample for the needs and reasonable desires of all who dwell in it."

The proclamation expresses the sympathy of Minnesotans for those who are suffering from the horrors of war and mentions the fact that the United States is at peace as a special reason for giving thanks.

ASQUITH DENIES REPORTS

Asserts Lord Kitchener Never Tendered His Resignation.

London, Nov. 12.—During a discussion in the house of commons on the suspension of the Globe newspaper, James Myles Hodge, member for East Edinburgh, declared his belief that the statement that Lord Kitchener had resigned was true and that the seizure of the paper because of the publication of the statement was not justified.

Premier Asquith immediately said that Mr. Hodge accused him of "a deliberate and inexcusable falsehood," and, to make the matter quite clear, he declared:

"Earl Kitchener never tendered his resignation either to the king or myself, the only two persons to whom he could have tendered it. Earl Kitchener never breathed a word of resignation to either."

REVIVAL MEETING

Rev. Hognander Addressed Assemblage in the Absence of Rev. Johnson

A fairly large attendance filled the opera house last night. Rev. Hognander took the pulpit last night in the absence of Rev. Johnson, who was suddenly called to Minneapolis yesterday morning. He will be back for the meeting tonight. The text of the sermon was taken from Rev. 3.

"God shows his love for his people," said the speaker. "The duty of the minister is to warn the people of the danger of sin. God knows every one of us and sees our actions and thoughts. Many people think they are all right if they try to do their best, but God says, 'Those who are not with Me are against Me.' Most people who are won for Christ are won before they are twenty years old. The longer you put it off the harder your heart grows, till some day it will be too late."

An 1830 Bodice on a 1915 Figure

By MARGARET MASON
Written for the United Press

Hip, hip, hurrah!
No more the stay
Will bind your hips unduly;
They're free once more
With curves galore
And most becoming truly.

New York, Nov. 12—You can't put an 1830 bodice on a 1915 figure with any great success. Hence, since femininity just must wear these adorable little boned and pointed bodices it is up to femininity to reconstruct the female form divine. Special corsets to make the firm foundation for this work of reconstruction are now on the market and the spot.

They differ in three vital points, or perhaps we should say curves, from "little old last year's" stays. They are two and three inches higher in the bust, smaller and more curved at the waist and most amazing of all, they are shorter and less boned over the hip, with what is called a "free hip" finish.

Doesn't it just take your breath away to think that you are going to have fashion on your hip again? What will probably take your breath a trifle more, however, is when you pull on your 1915 corset strings to get the new curved-in waist effect. Don't let anybody else string you for it's going to be a mighty hard yank. Let there be no waste of energy in the pull, either, or there will be no waist of modish dimensions in the corsets.

Front lace corsets are gaining ever increasing popularity because of their greater comfort as well as their good lines. They are most successful with medium and heavy figures. For the truly svelte the back lace effects are the most approved models. Simplicity of line and adornment is the keynote of the new corsets and they are staid stays indeed.

Frills of lace and ornate trimmings are lacking, but in many exquisite pale tints of silk broche are the corsets evolved in their entirety.

Where once all save white or flesh tinted corsets were frowned upon by the fashionably elect, now maize, azure, Nile green, mauve, grey, apricot and even black ones are clasped to most fastidious bosoms.

Verily, with the new high lace corsets either front or back, and the new high lace boots front, back or side, the sartorial success of this season's dame hangs on a string. She starts it with a corset lace and ends up with a shoestring.

MONARCHY IS POSTPONED

Opposition of Japan Delays Proposed Change in China.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Confirmation of press dispatches from Peking saying the Chinese government has announced no change will be made in the form of government this year has reached Washington.

There has been no abandonment of the project for restoration of the monarchy, however, and the announcement is in line with the original program laid down by the council of state when it submitted to the Chinese people the proposed restoration of the monarchy.

It is understood that Japanese opposition influenced the Chinese cabinet to adhere to the original program.

WISHED TO LEAVE CABINET

Sir Edward Grey So Informs House of Commons.

London, Nov. 12.—Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, told the house of commons that he himself had expressed a desire to resign at the time Viscount Haldane left the cabinet.

"But for a crisis in the public affairs I would have done so," said the foreign secretary.

Sir Edward declared he regarded Lord Haldane's resignation as a loss to the public service. When the coalition cabinet was formed last May Viscount Haldane was succeeded as lord high chancellor by Baron Buckmaster of Cheddington.

President Hopes for G. O. P. Support for Defense Plans.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Republican in congress will be consulted by President Wilson on the administration plans for national defense before the opening of the session.

Officials took the view that the president is hopeful that his plans will receive the support of Republicans and thus overcome the opposition of some Democrats, led by former Secretary Bryan.

The president has received messages from many Republicans outside of congress approving his defense plans.

GOOD-BYE SACRIFICE

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD
"SYRUP OF FIGS" IF
TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea.

Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv't.

John Johnson Hooks Up in a Clothes Line, Cuts Head With an Axe

Cuyuna, Minn., Nov. 12.—Dr. G. M. Sewall was at Brainerd on professional business.

John Johnson cut his head with an axe when he hooked up in a clothes line.

The Sewdish Ladies Aid society met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Jacobs.

H. B. Blackwood hurt himself while working at one of his drills near Orefield.

Ed Gustad, who has been awarded the contract to build the Deerwood depot, was first located in Cuyuna, later removing to Crosby. He built many of the largest buildings in Cuyuna.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson were recent Brainerd visitors.

The Swedish Lutheran Ladies Aid will hold a sale on Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 18, in the Presbyterian church.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, musty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

By H. P. Dunn, Pharmacist

Cleopatra drank pearls dissolved in ruby water. No doubt that was some taste teaser; but Nature's great health applier is West Baden Sprudel Water—the sparkling, life-giving beverage that bubbles from the earth at West Baden, Indiana.

No man can be well or happy if he is troubled with constipation, headache, stomach upsets or sluggish liver. These ailments are caused by overeating and lack of outdoor exercise. A glassful of West Baden Sprudel Water once a week is a splendid internal exerciser and system tonic. It is a health-safeguard everyone can afford and should use whenever necessity demands.

Now this excellent laxative water is bottled at the Mother Spring. Druggists sell the small size for 15c and the large for 35c. The West Baden Sprudel Water habit is worth cultivating and is the cheapest and surest health insurance I know of.

The Dunn Drug Co., Front street, is where hundreds of men and women go to have prescriptions filled, as well as to buy other items usually found in a well-stocked drug store. Many people go to Mr. Dunn for advice on matters pertaining to health, and when a man of his standing and reputation advises his readers to drink West Baden Sprudel Water, it is because he thoroughly believes in it.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1915.

The Walker Pilot thinks that if there were more Jews in politics there would be no pork barrel. Farley's legislative experience is bearing fruit.

"Back to the farm" is a good slogan, but "Stay there" is a far better one, says the Todd County Argus. Why not advise the man who is about to dispose of his farm to "Hold 'er."

Thanksgiving is nearly here and the people in this glorious country certainly have reason to give thanks. A comparison of the conditions in the United States with those of the war torn countries of Europe will bring vividly to mind this fact.

John W. Kern, at one time Bryan's running mate, asserts that while he is opposed to mammoth expenditures for battleships, and the things that make war possible, in one year, he will stand back of the president in his preparedness program before the next congress.

A million tractors that will do all the farm work excepting milk the cows, set the hens and wash the dinner dishes, is to be built by the well known auto manufacturer who has probably received more free advertising than any other individual, and if Ford's new invention does what it's cracked up to do the farm horse will have to take off its hat to the tractor.

Cities in the northwest are looking up and new industries are reported in many sections. The latest is a big cement tile plant to be located at St. Cloud, and means an addition to that city's population of about 300 people. The big paper and pulp mill to be built at Brainerd and the tile plant for our sister city makes two new industrial institutions for this section within a week.

Miss Anna Shelland, for many years superintendent of schools of Koochiching county, has resigned to become state school inspector. Miss Shelland knows more of pioneer life than many who have lived in northern Minnesota during the same time. She has traversed the wilds of the northern section of the state in the discharge of her duties and it is many an interesting story she can tell of her experiences. The many Brainerd people who met her on the occasion of her visit to this city during the meeting of the Development Association last year will join with the Dispatch in the sentiment that she was entitled to the recognition she has received.

WHAT UNITED EFFORT WILL DO

Brainerd is rejoicing over the fact that a $400,000 paper mill has decided to locate there, and will give employment to 150 men. The industry was secured by intelligent effort on the part of a live Commercial club committee—Wadena Pioneer-Journal

Plans for Hospital to Treat Disfigured Faces

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 12—Brie Anema, a noted French surgeon, landed here to prepare plans for a hospital supported partially by the American Red Cross society to treat disfigured faces from European battlefields. Faces minus noses, jaws and lips are to be rebuilt into a human semblance. Thousands of such faces are awaiting reconstruction. Grafting will be used to replace dead tissues.

JOHNNY POE, FOOTBALL STAR, KILLED IN WAR.

Ex-Princeton Man Was Member of the Black Watch.

John Prentiss Poe, Jr., once noted as a football player at Princeton, was killed Sept. 22 while fighting as a private in a Scotch regiment along the northern boundary of France.

In the allied drive the Black Watch regiment, of which he was a member, practically was annihilated.

Only meager facts concerning his death were received in Baltimore by his brother, S. Johnson Poe. The message was from the London war office and did not state where he fell, merely saying he was "killed in action."

Johnny Poe, as he was known to football enthusiasts in the early nineties, was a son of John Prentiss Poe, a former attorney general of Maryland. He entered Princeton with the class of 1895 and was a member of the varsity football team in his freshman year, his work on the gridiron rivaling that of his brother, Edgar Allan Poe, who had preceded him. He failed in his examinations in June and re-entered the university with the class of 1896. He played football again, but again failed in his examinations and did not return to college.

Soon after Poe left Princeton he began his adventurous career. He engaged in mining and timbering in Nevada and became a hero overnight when he tackled a big foreigner who had spoken in a disagreeable manner about the stars and stripes. His football experience came in handy, and the foreigner was severely punished.

Young Poe then took upon himself the task of finding the lost mines in Death valley located by the notorious "Scotty," who cut a wide swath in the east about that time. He reported after an absence of some weeks that he had found them and also a robber's cave with a lot of chests labeled Wells Fargo, broken and empty, inside.

In the Spanish war Poe was in a Maryland regiment. Then he entered the Honduran army in the war with Nicaragua. After a year or more in Central America he went to San Francisco, enlisted in the United States army and went to the Philippines with the Sixteenth infantry. He worked about the southwestern oil fields and did a number of other things, such as cow punching and further prospecting for mines.

He was a captain in the Honduran army in the war between Honduras and Nicaragua in 1907 and distinguished himself at the siege of Amapala. In 1908 he took part in General Mendez's filibustering expedition against General Castro, then dictator of Venezuela.

Tomorrow and Sunday may be seen the pictures taken of Brainerd and vicinity featuring Tom Woods. This picture is run by a committee of Brainerd Boosters.

A new epoch in the advancement of the motion picture is marked by Charles Frohman's first offering to the motion-picture public, "The Conspiracy." The four-part film version of this recent theatrical success was produced by the Famous Players Film Co., with which Charles Frohman is affiliated, and appears on the Paramount program.

Aside from the unique interest which attaches to the production as the initial film offering of this celebrated theatrical producer, the original stage presentation of the play created a distinct sensation, and thrilled and amused metropolitan audiences throughout an unusually successful season.

"The Conspiracy" is a detective comedy-drama of modern New York, and is full of laughs and thrills. John Emerson, who created the role of the detective in the original stage production and is co-author of the play, is seen even to better advantage on the screen than before the footlights, by reason of the amplification of the film version of the drama.

Interwoven with the story of the crime that is the basic element of the theme is a pretty and tender romance who may be said to be a strong dramatic note of the play. John Emerson is supported by an unusually competent cast, including Lois Meredith, who may be said to be a strong drawing-card in her own right, having been the recent star of the noted dramatic success, "Help Wanted"

The production will appear at the Grand on Sunday.

HOW SAVINGS GROW.

Ben Franklin's Proof That "Money is of a Prolific Nature."

After publishing his "Poor Richard's Almanac" for twenty-five years and giving thirty-two years more as a thrift teacher of his country Benjamin Franklin put into his will a provision to demonstrate the power of accumulated savings.

To the cities of Boston and Philadelphia he left $5,000 each. The money was to be put out at interest and allowed to accumulate for a hundred years. At the end of that time, he figured, each city ought to have $500,000. He directed that at the end of the hundred years $500,000 should be invested by each city "in public works which may be of most general utility to the inhabitants." The rest should then be put at interest for another hundred years, when the accumulation should be divided, one-quarter to the city and three-quarters to the state.

When the first hundred years were past Boston found that she had $693,923 to her credit from the Franklin fund. Taking $500,000, Boston established a training school for mechanics. The remaining $193,923 was put out at interest again.

Philadelphia's experience with the original fund of $5,000 was about the same as Boston's.

Now, Franklin figured that at the end of the second hundred years, when the fund is to be distributed, each fund ought to amount to about $20,000,000. But Boston's fund at the end of the first hundred years exceeded Franklin's estimate by $13,923. So here's a problem:

If Boston handles the fund as successfully in the second hundred years as she did in the first how much in excess of $20,000,000 will it be?

Franklin's demonstration was impressive; $5,000 will go into $693,923 how many times? Nearly 133 times. Wasn't he amply justified when he said, "Money is of a prolific nature."

What sort of a demonstration can you make?—John Oskison in Chicago News.

A Distinction.

"One suburban neighbor who is a lawyer told me yesterday with pride that he is quite an expert at white-washing."

"What's his specialty—fences or characters?"—Exchange.

GIVE FREELY.

Measure thy life by loss instead of gain. Not by the wine drunk, but by the wine poured forth; For love's strength standeth in love's sacrifice. And whose suffers most has most to give. —H. E. H. King.

Hunting Truffles.

The fashion of procuring the truffle by the aid of swine and hounds originated in France. More ill assorted sporting companions can hardly be imagined. The truffles grow underground. Pigs are particularly fond of these delicacies and, guided by the scent, will discover them by rooting in the earth. After the discovery of the truffles the dogs are employed to beat back the pigs and prevent them from devouring the spoil. And every quality dear to the sportsman of skill and judgment is needed to control and obtain the desired result from the efforts of a herd of swine and a pack of hounds.—London Outlook.

URGES SHIPS FOR AMERICA

Secretary Redfield Pleads for Merchant Marine.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 12.—A merchant marine controlled in the sole interest of the movement of American commerce was declared a vital necessity to the future welfare of the United States by Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce, in an address here before the Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways association.

"The mind of America is awake to the fact that we must have our place upon the sea; the means of delivery must be within our own control," Mr. Redfield said.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Don't stay gray! Nobody can tell when you darken gray, faded hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

PREPARING FOR WORK AT THE DAM

Northwest Paper Co., Engineers, Messrs. Bennett and Callahan to Arrive Saturday and Monday

NO INCREASE TO HEIGHT OF DAM

Considerable Material for The Company's Construction Work is Now on Way to Brainerd

The announcement that The Northwest Paper Company was to put in a large pulp and paper mill in Brainerd and expend from $300,000 to $400,000 on the plant, has been followed by action on the part of the company in commencing construction work and it is now believed the entire plant will be ready for operation within a year's time, thus giving to Brainerd a permanent industry employing 150 men or more and contributing much to increase the commercial and business life of the city.

Engineers of the company will make Brainerd their residence during construction work. Engineer Bennett of the George F. Hardy Co., of New York city, is to be the resident engineer and he and his family are expected in Brainerd Saturday.

E. P. Callahan of Eau Claire, Wis., the noted engineer who built the little Falls dam and who is also an expert in installing water power machinery, will arrive at Brainerd Monday and will make this city his home for many months. The work at Brainerd includes the excavation of 30,000 yards, the digging into the east bank of the river and also fifteen feet under the river, the building of this section of the dam and the remodeling of the present dam, the installation of ten pair of water wheels, etc.

Tom Johnson will be the local representative of The Northwest Paper Co., during the construction work period. Mr. Johnson and family have arrived from Cloquet. The proposed installation of water wheels, said Mr.
Johnson, will generate as high as 8-000 horsepower.

The company has made the definite announcement that no raise will be made in the height of the dam, as it has been found impossible to secure additional fowage rights. The paper and pulp mills have accordingly been planned to conform to the present height which will make no change in the stage of water now backed up by this dam. However the most modern methods will be used to utilize every particle of power generated by the dam without increasing its present height.

Considerable material to be used by the company in construction work is now on its way to Brainerd. All things point to the fact that the water power site of The Northwest Paper company will soon be humming with industry, giving employment to 200 to 300 men in construction work throughout the fall and winter, and thus contributing to give labor in Brainerd work at a time when most needed.

THE HUBERT SHOOTING

In Absence of Officers, Citizens have Right to Arrest and Hold Assailant

Hubert, Minn., Nov. 11, 1915.
Editors Dispatch:

Gentlemen: The shooting of a man near here this morning gave rise to a situation that is worthy of public attention and in public interest I think should be settled beyond question. There was at the time no deputy sheriff or constable at hand and it was believed that the man who did the shooting would attempt to get away either on the 11 o'clock passenger train or on the freight going north, as there was no probability of a deputy sheriff getting here before that the question arose as to what could be done to prevent the man getting away.

I said at once that any citizen of the county had a right to make an arrest in the absence of any officer.
This was questioned and I said at once that if the man appeared I would take the responsibility of arresting him and detaining him until the deputy sheriff arrived and if he resisted should call upon other citizens to help to hold him, taking the entire responsibility myself. Simply telling the man that as a citizen of Crow Wing county cognizant of the shooting I arrested him for shooting with intent to kill and be must remain in custody until the arrival of the sheriff or his deputy, I being careful not to impersonate an officer but to make the arrest as a citizen of the county well known as such in the community where the crime was committed.

This I know to be the law in Ohio and New York and assume that it is in Minnesota. Please let it be known whether I was right or wrong. If wrong then a murder might be committed and the murderer walk away in the sight of everybody and make his escape. I have always understood that it was not only the right but the duty of any citizen when a great crime is committed to arrest
the criminal if no officer is present.

With great respect,

FREEMAN THORP.

P. S.—The man left the railroad and took to the woods so I did not have to act as I certainly should have done if he had appeared.

Sheriff Claus A. Theorin states that immediately on receipt of the news of the shooting at Hubert he telephoned W. G. Curtis to have the citizens arrest and hold the man who had shot Peter Kilnest.

The sheriff's office was quickly at the scene of the crime, and searched the woods and other places, but so far has not gotten the murderous individual.

Kilnest told the sheriff that he and his assailant had been drinking in the shack before the shooting took place.

BUYS VALUABLE CONGDON ETCHING

"The Last Kiss of the Sun." Purchased by Little Men's Art Club

LETTER FROM THOS. R. CONGDON

"Art is the Grandeur of Nature Seen Through Temperament of the Artist"

The proceeds of the exhibit given by the Little Men's Art club last spring have taken definite, artistic form, and the public library is the gainer thereby.

The "Little Men" decided to patronize home talent and secure one of Thomas R. Congdon's etchings—the one exhibited at the Panama Pacific exposition, entitled "The Last Kiss of the Sun." No hint is given of the location of this scene except that which the picture itself contains. It might be Duluth, if topography alone were considered. But the sun's kisses are never so warm, or the contrast so great between his glowing kisses and the depth of his shadow in these northern climes. Even his last rays that light up the church spire, bur-nish the golden sheaves of grain on the hillside, and bring out the dull glow in the red-tiled roofs suggest the intense brilliancy of an Italian sun and make grateful the cool, shaded road in the valley along which two comfortable, ample figures are strolling. The architecture also suggests northern Italy, and the sheaves of grain might indicate the macaroni wheat fields of Lombardy. But this is only a guess. Mr. Congdon evidently prefers that each little man shall get his own meaning from this bright, peaceful bit of nature that he has "translated" to canvas, for he gives them no key in the following letter, which was written to the club, but will no doubt be of interest to all.

Salmagundi Club (New York Artists)
14 West Twelfth St.
New York City

Nov. 1st, 1915.
To the Little Men's Art Club,
Brainerd, Minn.

Dear "Little Men":
I do not know what could give me more real joy than to receive from you a request to own one of my works.

I too, was once a Brainerd boy and,
like you I aspired to touch the realm of the ideal. But in my boyhood days Brainerd was a mere hamlet in the wilderness and there were no kind friends, such as you have in Mrs. Thabes, Mr. Whitney and others to guide me in the right path. Had I been shown the right course to pursue when I was your age it might have saved me many years of struggle, for the youthful mind grasps more quickly and holds firmer the ideas then acquired.

There is no royal road to art, but my hope is that you may avail yourselves of the splendid opportunity so generously offered you in your Little Men's Art club.

Do not I pray you stop at the study of the works of the old masters. Go directly to nature for inspiration study her artistic beauties, learn wherein she charms.

Nature is the greatest of all masters. No artist has ever equaled the qualities of her color, values and tone quality. I would not have you understand me to say that a servile copy of nature is necessarily a work of art
—no indeed, far from it.

Art is the grandeur of nature seen through the temperament of the artist and therefore it is quite possible for you, my "Little Men" to understand,
at least in part, what is the artists intention when he translates nature to canvas, if you study wisely both nature and the works of our best American artists. Both are of equal importance, to omit either of them only delays your comprehension of what art really is.

I shall always be most glad to give you any information or advice that you may care to ask of me and I would consider it a privilege to become an honorary member of your
art club.

Most cordially yours,
THOS. R. CONGDON.

A letter from Mrs. Nevers contains this quotation from the artist's letter to her: "I confess to you that the interest shown by these 'Will-be-men' has touched my heart, and I am indeed glad to be able to share with them in their efforts to lift themselves to the plane of the appreciation of the fine arts."

The above indicates that the boys possess something more than a picture in this work of art, something more, even, than the appreciation and interest of the artist. It represents on their part, loyalty to and appreciation of a home artist, and on his part an interest and sentiment closely associated with the days of auld lang sync.

SERBIANS NOW IN MOUNTAINS

May Make Teutonic Advance
More Difficult.

MONTENEGRINS DELAY DRIVE

Failure to Force Back Army of Serbia's Ally Is Holding Field Marshal von Mackensen in Check, as This Body Proves a Menace to His Right Wing.

London, Nov. 12.—There has been no material change in the situation, either in Serbia or on the other fronts. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing along the line west of Nish, but beyond the report of the capture of another 4,000 prisoners, which the Serbians say, like those reported captured previously, were largely civilians or Albanian or Macedonian troops, who surrendered easily, the official reports of the invaders do not record the capture of any town.

In fact, the Serbians are now facing the invaders in the mountains, which have proved a protection to them in their previous wars, and they may be expected to make the advance of the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians a matter of some difficulty.

It also is probable that the opposition the Austrians are meeting in their efforts to drive back the Montenegrins is delaying Field Marshal von Mackensen's army, for the right wing must be free from this menace before they proceed with their drive.

The news from the southern part of the country is very conflicting. It is now known that the French did not occupy, but simply made a cavalry raid into the town of Veles, destroying the Bulgarian ammunition stores. The French, however, are advancing on the west side of the Vardar river and at the same time are repelling Bulgarian attacks on Krivolak and endeavoring to form a junction with the Serbians who are fighting in the Babuna pass.

DRASTIC ECONOMY NEEDED

Earl St. Aldwyn Says War Expenses Will Be Met.

London, Nov. 12.—Earl St. Aldwyn, former chancellor of the exchequer, in the debate on the necessity for greater economy which was resumed in the house of lords, declared that, whatever the financial requirements are they will be met. He believed the country will find the money, he said, and that there is no reason for faint heartedness in these matters, giving the foes of the nation cause to rejoice, but the government, he asserted, is bound to exercise, far more than it has yet exercised, the means of economizing at its disposal.

Earl St. Aldwyn protested against delay in raising new taxation for the war. Large as the expenses are which have been made, he said, they are not large enough, especially in regard to indirect taxation.

KAISER SAVES TWO WOMEN

Commutes Death Sentences of Three Belgians.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The Koelnische Volks Zeitung reports that Emperor William has telegraphed Cardinal Hartmann that, at the solicitation of the pope, the sentence of death against the Countess de Belleville, Mile. Thullier and Louis Severin has been commuted to imprisonment for life.

These three persons were mentioned in the official proclamation announcing the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, a British nurse, as having been sentenced to death by the German authorities in Belgium.

Greek Chamber Dissolved.

London, Nov. 12.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Athens says a decree has been issued dissolving the chamber of deputies and that the new elections have been fixed for Dec. 19.

TAFT OUT FOR ELIHU ROOT

Says New Yorker Is the One Man Who Answers Requirements.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Elihu Root, without qualification, in the opinion of William Howard Taft, is the one man of today who answers the requirements for president of the United States.

The former president uttered this opinion in a statement to newspaper men just before he urged an army of 500,000 men and a "navy equal to that of Germany's, with adequate submarine and auxiliary craft," in a speech prepared before the National Security league at the Hotel La Salle. Many politicians took the Taft speech partly in the way of a Republican answer to President Wilson's keynote speech at the Manhattan club in New York recently, for he deplored Secretary Daniels' "demoralizing of the navy," declared the board of inventors' plan all wrong and declared that efficiency must not be sacrificed to the vindication of an academic theory.

G. O. P. CANDIDATES BECOMING FEWER

Last Election Eliminated Much Talk About Root.

M'CALL IS A BIT STRONGER

Little Chance That Associate Justice Hughes Will Be Nominated, as He Has Repeatedly Said That He Does Not Want the Place—Root's Age and Health Also Against Him.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 12.—[Special.]—Quite a number of people have said that the circle of Republican possibilities has been enlarged by the recent elections, but to my mind the number has narrowed to a considerable extent. The elections have not made Borah, Cummins, Sherman or any of the far western men any more popular, nor have they created a demand for their nomination.

Burton and Weeks may be considered a little stronger, and it is likely that the general acceptance of the elimination of Root will strengthen Governor Whitman in New York. Weeks may have been strengthened in the west, but Sam McCall looms up a bit. The man who can be elected governor of a state which has been going Democratic always has a show for the Republican nomination.

Why Hughes Is Out.

Those who have been pinning their faith on the possibility of Associate Justice Hughes receiving the Republican nomination might just as well give in and accept the inevitable. One of the most active Republicans explained this to me a few days ago.

"In the first place, Hughes doesn't want the nomination," he said. "If he is nominated it will have to be handed to him on a silver platter, and he will reluctantly consent to make the race. After he is elected and a Republican goes to him and wants a friend appointed, wants some rewards passed out to party workers or talks about party politics, Hughes will ask: 'What have I to do with that? I was forced to take this place against my will. It has been thrust upon me, and I will administer it as I think best. We don't want a president like that.' A great many Republican leaders have that view of Hughes.

Root's Age and Health.

And getting right down to brass tacks, the greatest admirers of Elihu Root are obliged to acknowledge that Mr. Root is right when he says that his age and health will prevent him from making the race for president. "I saw him during the campaign," said a prominent Republican who campaigned in New York. "He made a speech of three-quarters of an hour on a subject with which he was perfectly familiar—the new constitution. At the end of that time he was completely exhausted. He will not be considered in the convention."

"Nervous and Excited."

Certain Republicans are turning the tables on their Democratic friends. Such men as Senators Lodge and Weeks and Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts, as well as several others who called loudly for war preparations last winter, were called hysterical and "nervous and excited." The words quoted are from the president's last annual message when he was poking fun at the demand for greater war expenditures. "Who is nervous and excited now?" the Republicans are asking their Democratic tormentors of last winter.

A Defeat Explained.

Senator Smoot of Utah says that the defeat of the new constitution in New York is another example of the failure of referendums. "It always happens," he said, "that when anything is submitted to the people which they do not understand they will vote against it. They prefer to leave well enough alone rather than to go to something they know nothing about. The vote in New York shows that people are conservative until they understand."

Stand at Congressional Doors.

Year after year, when the women have come to congress to ask for a constitutional amendment to permit them to vote, they have been told to go and get the ballot through the states. They have been to the eastern states and repulsed, and now they intend to stand at the doors of congress and with renewed vigor demand the amendment.

A. D. S. TENTH ANNIVERSARY SALE

Ten years ago a small group of druggists got together and formed what is now known as the American Druggist's Syndicate for the purpose of Co-operative buying. It was a success from the start. Today it has a membership of over 20,000 retail druggists and 4,000 physicians, and its goods are carried in over 29,000 drug stores in fact it is known in every civilized country in the world.

We would like to see an A. D. S. preparation in every home in Brainerd as it will lead in many sales for us in the future. With this in view we have decided to give away on Saturday, Nov. 13th.

"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

One might say that congress will not grant them the amendment, but it is just possible that congress will do that very thing and leave it to one-fourth of the states to prevent universal woman suffrage. The suffragists will then have to go back to the states.

Another Columbus.

A witness appeared before the District Investigating committee and told its members, composed of men from both houses, that congress was an assembly of dolts and ignorant men. He also asserted that congress had no power to make appropriations for the District of Columbia. Congress has been doing that very thing for years and will continue to do so for years in the future, no matter what may be its power.

The supreme court will likewise continue to render unconstitutional decisions just as it has in the past. There is no power to stop congress nor the court.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 12.—Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of directors of the Bethlehem Steel company, returned from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and conferred with other officials of the company relative to the reconstruction of No. 4 machine shop, which was destroyed by fire.

A complete inspection of the ruined shop, company officials said, showed that the loss by the fire will be less than $1,000,000.
